TEMPERANCE MEETING

Called For Thursday Night To Promote the Cause of Local Option.

A meeting of the temperance advocates of Cloverport has been called for Thursday night at the Methodist church. It is earnestly desired that every citizen of Cloverport who is interested in the movement to abolish the liquor traffic in this city should be present and lend his, or her, influence to the cause which should be championed by every Christian.

The decision rendered by Judge Chief in the Circuit Court to the effect that the election which resulted in a victory for the whiskey element was illegal, thereby making the operation of saloons in Cloverport a violation of the law, was a victory for the temperance advocates. The latter now propose to follow up this victory by every means possible to rid the town of the whiskey evil.

The decision of Judge Chief will be carried to the Court of Appeals, where a final hearing will be had. Should Judge Chief's opinion be sustained by the supreme court Cloverport will be rid of the saloon once again. To this end the meeting for Thursday night is called, and no one who is interested should shrink at going by absenting himself from this meeting.

WILL TAKE AN APPEAL

Whisky People Are Grasping at the Last Straw.

Harrisburg, Ky., Jan. 8.—The contest in the Cloverport Local Option case has signified their intention to appeal from Judge West S. Chief's recent decision, by executing a supersedeas bond in the circuit court. They have until the first day of the next February term within which to prepare and a bill of exceptions.

Beats the Music Cure.
"To keep the body in tune," writes Mrs. Mary Brown, 21 Lafayette Place, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. "I take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are the most reliable and pleasant laxative I have found." Best for the Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Guaranteed by Severs Drug Company, 35c.

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN.

At a meeting of the F. & A. M. lodge on last Saturday night the following new officers were elected for the ensuing year:
C. W. Hamman, W. M.; J. S. Young, S. W.; B. M. Currie, J. W.; Chas. B. Skillman, Secy.; A. B. Skillman, Treas.; J. Byrne Severs, S. D.; David Phelps, J. D.; Carl Lichen, Tyler; Joe Allen and J. W. Pate, Stewards.

The lodge is in a flourishing condition and has just closed a most successful year. The membership now numbers in the neighborhood of ninety.

Why Washington Dines Early.

Washington dines early. In most cities throughout the country the people take their dinner late in the evening, but this is not true of Washington. Most of the people of this city eat the evening meal between 5 and 7 o'clock. The early evening dinner is particularly characteristic of Washington boarding houses and private families. The rule to a certain extent also applies to the various hotels, cafes and restaurants.

The reason for the early dinner of the residents of the nation's capital is obvious. Approximately there are 50,000 Government employees in the District. The various departments close at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. In most cases the clerks and officials have had only a small lunch at noon. Perhaps the noon meal is secured at a nearby restaurant or dairy lunch room. In many instances the employees carry their lunches. After a hard day's work naturally they have good appetites.

Most of the restaurants in Washington make a practice of serving regular dinners and have the repeat ready to serve by 5 o'clock. The boarding house keepers, too, realize that their guests appreciate an early dinner, and consequently the table is ready for the customer at 5 o'clock or shortly afterward. In the large hotels dinner, of course, is served early and late. The cafe and restaurant proprietors, some of them, have late meals in readiness for their customers, but the rule is not general. ## FIRE AT IRVINGTON

Does Considerable Damage—Heroism Displayed By Citizens Averts a Disastrous Conflagration.

The heroic efforts of several citizens of Irvington in all probability saved the little city from the most disastrous fire in its history. As it was the store house and stock of goods of S. B. Payne & Co. was burned, and the McCoy Hotel was partially destroyed, entailing a loss upon its proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Pomp McCoy, with no insurance.

The bucket brigade did noble work, and to the citizens comprising it is due the salvation of the town. The heroism displayed by old and young was most commendable. The hero of the hour was Mr. J. H. Shelman, assisted by Messrs. Ben Bates, Taylor Haynes and others of the bucket brigade. Mr. Shelman, in the face of death, cut his way into the burning hotel and with the assistance of Messrs. Bates and Haynes and others subdued the flames.

Those composing the bucket brigade were: Ed. Shelman, Ben Bates, Taylor Haynes, Dr. Paul Dempster, Thos. Blythe, Owen Keys, Craton Claycomb, Lewis Jolly, "Pip" Smith, Lun Smith, Jim Biggs, "Dad" Arnold, Elijah Chace, Weldon Board, Maj. Johnson, Thos. "Monk" Brown, Ernest Jones, Jas. Jarrett.

WALKING ON THE OHIO

Prof. Oldreive Wagers $5,000 That He Can Traverse the Ohio In a Given Time.

Walking on the waters of the Ohio and staking a wager that he will make the trip from Cincinnati to New Orleans in forty days, C. Oldreive is expected to make Cloverport to-day on his unprecedented tour of the waters of the Ohio on foot. Oldreive has wagered a stake of $5,000 with a Boston citizen that he will complete the journey within the time limit.

Prof. Oldreive wears cedar boots and is called the "human boat." His wife, the champion oarswoman of the world, precedes him in a launch, and is at hand to assist should a mishap befall him.

FARMERS' EXCHANGE

Established in Cloverport to Supply Farmers With Provisions In Exchange For Grain.

A Farmers' Exchange has been opened in Cloverport for the purpose of supplying the farmers of the county with flour, meal and other provisions, taking in exchange therefor all kinds of grain.

The Exchange will be of great aid to farmers, who can be supplied with flour and other provisions immediately upon the delivery of their grain.

Mr. H. H. Hardin has the management of the Exchange.

Died in Louisville.

The death of Mrs. Rosa Prinz Schank occurred in Louisville on Tuesday last week. Death was due to bronchitis.

Mrs. Schank with her widowed mother, Mrs. Lou Prinz, formerly lived in Cloverport. Though her given name was Rose she was better known by Lolla, and the people here will remember her by that name. Mrs. Schank was much beloved by the people of Cloverport and her many friends here regret to hear of her death.

Deceased was thirty-five years of age. A husband, Mr. John L. Schank, and two small children survive. Messrs. J. C. and E. F. Nolte, of this city, are nephews of the deceased.

The burial was in Cave Hill cemetery.

Moves to Victoria.

Mr. Ben Brown, of Victoria, was here Saturday. Mr. Brown has just recently moved his family from Evansville to that place where he will farm.

If you want to make your wife happy get her a sack of Lewisport Flour sold in Cloverport by Preston, Williams and O'Connell.

THE SPREAD EAGLE

Hauls Into Port at This Place Monday On Way to Jeffersonville.

The passenger boat Spread Eagle hauled into port at this place on Monday at noon. She is the largest passenger boat that has floated this part of the Ohio in fifteen years.

The Spread Eagle, belonging to the St. Louis and Alton Packet Co., is on its way to Jeffersonville to secure a new boat for the company.

The Spread Eagle is the largest passenger boat that has made this port since the Will's Hays plied from Cincinnati to New Orleans.

During the stop here Captain Wm. Lyle, in command of the Spread Eagle, visited his cousin, Mrs. Anna May, whom he had not seen for thirty years.

GREAT LESSON

Of Giving Praise And Expressing Our Honest Approval, We Should All Learn.

We, all of us, need to learn more the great lesson of giving praise. We are so often afraid to praise in this world; far more ready to criticize than to approve. There are always hundreds ready to find fault; and to overcome the effects that petty criticism and senseless fault-finding frequently have with the best of us, it should be the duty of us all to say the word of honest approval whenever it comes to our heart to say it. We leave kindly words too often unexpressed in the heart. Let us speak them—or write them when we feel them, and the world will be as easier and a better place for thousands of us.

Two well-known writers recently met and one complimented the other upon a recent piece of work. "I meant to write you at the time, but I knew hundreds would, and so I didn't want to add to your mail," he added. "Hundreds," said the author, "why, man, not a soul wrote me a word of praise; only a score or more to find fault."

The two men then made a compact, that thereafter when something was written, painted, acted or achieved by any one, whether or not they knew the man or woman, that particularly pleased them or that they approved of, they would say in a note. These two men have done this, and the surprise with which their words of approval have been met was a revelation to them in showing how scarce was honest expression of approval.—The Ladies Home Journal.

Fresh Australian Eggs For London.

A fresh development in the egg trade is now being brought before the notice of the London produce merchants, and may prove beneficial to the great body of consumers. For some years poultry farming has been taken up more and more by farmers and others in South Australia, and the quantity of eggs produced has increased so much that the local and Commonwealth markets cannot absorb the supply. It has therefore become necessary to export. To this end, the South Australian Government undertook to advance the freight on a small trial shipment, the producers themselves supplying the eggs, with the result that 700 cases of eggs were shipped by the steamship Britannia, and arrived in London Monday last.

They were graded, packed and chilled at this Government Produce Export Department, Port Adelaide, none but absolutely fresh laid eggs being accepted. As the result of the care taken to grade and pack, the eggs have arrived, it is declared, in first class condition. The eggs have not been frozen; they were merely chilled in the temperature provided after careful experiments to be most suitable. Although they have traveled 13,000 miles and have reached London about seven o'clock here after laying, the consistency of the albumen and the condition of the yolks are satisfactory; the eggs will boil, poach or fry.—London Daily Mail.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Call at Preston's for the best flour.

Call for the Lewisport flour on sale at O'Connell's.

Preston sells Lewisport flour, the best in the market.

There is no better flour on the market. It is made at Lewisport, Williams sells it.

WEDDINGS AT HARDINSBURG.

Items of Much Importance in Our Neighboring Town.

On New Year's day at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, occurred the marriage of Miss Edith Durham to Mr. Louis Ziegler, of Richmond, Oregon. The Rev. B. A. Brandon, pastor of the M. E. church, solemnized the marriage ceremony in a beautiful and impressive manner in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride is the attractive, accomplished daughter of Mr. James Durham, who is one of the wealthiest farmers of the county. Mr. Ziegler is a prosperous ranchman and a highly esteemed young man. They will leave for their new home next week.

D. C. Heron, of Irvington, who is buying timber for a Louisville company, was here a few days last week in connection with his firm.

John W. Miller, who is purchasing tobacco for the American Tobacco Co., has about 175,000 pounds within the last two weeks. He purchased the large crops of Percy M. Beard, Tom Beard and Milt West, paying them the top price. He is an experienced man in the business and is a fine judge of the quality and value of the weed. He is now located at Cloverport. He purchased 9000 pounds last week.

The County board of supervisors met here Monday to revise the assessor's price. The board is composed of G. W. Beard, W. G. Smart, W. S. Cart, John Alexander and Vennie Mooman. It will probably be in session the full term of eight days.

Miss Oma Lee Yates was married to J. H. Wood on Sunday evening, Jan. 6 at 6 o'clock at Freedom church. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Green Cundiff, pastor of the church. A large audience composed of friends and relatives assembled to witness the marriage. After the wedding they were driven to the home of the groom's parents where a reception was tendered them. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Yates, and is an attractive young lady with a wide circle of friends. Mr. Wood is a carpenter and painter by trade and a young man of splendid standing and character. They will make their home at this place.

Mrs. W. A. Walker and children will return home this week after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McCubbins at Tall City.

Mrs. Blanche Read went to Louisville Monday afternoon to be the guest of relative.

Quarterly Court last Monday.

Miss Emma Lou Moorman, of Glendale, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Murray, last week.

Mrs. Margaret and Evelyn Beard and Della Kincheloe, of Kingswood College, were spending Sunday at their respective homes.

Louie B. May, of Seattle, Wash., spent a few days of last week here visiting his mother, Mrs. Margaret May. Mr. May is a prosperous real estate dealer in the Washington metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Orla Woodfolk of Brandenburg were the guests of relatives here the first of last week.

I. B. Gable, of Evansville, was in town the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy M. Beard were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Richardson at Union Star several days of last week.

Mrs. Tom Gregory, of Garfield, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. McGill Saturday.

Dr. J. T. Baker, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is improving.

Dr. E. F. Day returned home Saturday from a visit to his parents at Short Creek.

Waves Lewis, of Continental, O., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Lewis.

A Correction.
The remains of Mrs. Mary Jane Basham were interred at Raymond instead of Stephens as was stated in last week's News.

How to Look Slim.
If you wish to look slim don't dress in white or light-colored materials. Shun all large patterns.

Stripes are more becoming than spots or checks, but narrow, not broad, stripes should be worn: Choose a material the pattern of which runs in perpendicular lines.

Short skirts are still very becoming; flowing draperies, on the other hand, give grace.

FIRE AT IRVINGTON

The Little City Suffers Bad Loss—Other News Notes of the Town and Vicinity.

Irvington, Ky., Jan. 8.—Our little city was thrown into a state of excitement Sunday at noon by the call of fire, and it was discovered that the storehouse of S. B. Payne & Co. was on fire and beyond control, but with the heroic efforts of the bucket brigade the McCoy hotel was saved, but damaged to the extent of about $500. Mr. and Mrs. Pomp McCoy, who occupy and operate the McCoy home, are greatly damaged, with no insurance. The hotel is owned by R. S. Sandy, who had no insurance on the building. Shellman & Co.'s bank was slightly damaged. Men and boys worked bravely, urged by the good women, to save the hotel, for in its loss a whole row of buildings would have gone.

Mrs. T. N. McGlothlin gave an informal reception Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 p. m., assisted by her two daughters, Misses Eva and Mabel McGlothlin, Lillie McGlothlin and Mrs. D. C. Heron. The house was tastefully decorated in white and green. The following ladies were in attendance: Mesdames Edwin Graves, Lon B. Moorman, James Bates Herndon, Robert Wimp, Pearl H. McGee, Bate Washington, Charlie Chenbrial, Walter J. Piggett, David C. Heron, Nannie Jolly Wathen, Misses B. Ads Drury, Halle Moore, Anna Lee Brady, Wills J. Drury, Essie Biggs, Ida and Rachel Madell.

All those who sustained a loss in the fire have many friends who will gladly lend any assistance in their power, and it is hoped that Mr. and Mrs. Payne will rebuild their business house and resume their work at the same place at an early date.

We are delighted to hear talk of a Commemorial Club in Irvington. There is always good accomplished when the business men of the town get to working in harmony. We shall look for great improvements along many lines.

Luther Wilson was the only one injured by the fire. He lost a finger.

C. M. McGlothlin, of West Point, spent Sunday here the guest of relatives.

Hulbert Piggett left last week to resume school duties at Terre Haute, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lewis and family have returned to Cloverport after a two weeks stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kemper have returned from Big Spring.

Mrs. Lou Bishop and family leave this week for their future home at Frankfort, Ky.

D. C. Heron, who has a traveling position with a lumber company of Louisville, was at home a few days last week.

The Rev. Graves held his two regular appointments here Sunday and gave to the people two splendid, practical sermons.

Miss Ellen Munford is in Louisville for a two weeks visit.

Mrs. Anna W. Herndon left last week for Louisville to spend January and February with her sister, Mrs. Tydings.

Miss Eva Hendon is improving rapidly from an attack of typhoid fever, and expects to leave for Nashville, Tenn., just as soon as she is able to visit her sister.

Miss Lila McGee leaves shortly for Gulfport, Miss., to see her sister, Mrs. Mack Ault.

Her Little Game.

As a married couple were walking down one of the main thoroughfares of a city the husband noted the attention which other women obtained from passers-by, and remarked to his better half: "Folks never look at you. I wish I had married some one better looking."

The woman replied: "It's your fault. Do you think a man will stare at me when you're walking with me?"

"Yes, I would," he exclaimed as he rejoined her, "I was wrong and take it back. I'll never say again about your looks again."

The wife had made a face at every man she met.—Ladies Home Journal.

SMALL BLAZE

At the St. George Hotel Came Near Causing Disastrous Fire.

The timely discovery of a blaze in the upper rooms of the St. George hotel by Mr. A. R. Fisher on last Monday morning averted a disastrous fire. Mr. Fisher was on his way to his drug store at about seven o'clock when he discovered smoke issuing from the room and a large blaze playing about the window. He ran into the house and notified the occupants who rushed into the room to find a mass of flames. The presence of mid of Mrs. Jordan, the proprietress, probably saved the house from total destruction. She grabbed a large feather bed, which was on fire, and throwing it against the wall, which was also ablaze, succeeded in smothering the flames. Buckets of water were dashed upon the burning furniture and the fire was put out.

The fire is supposed to have originated in the explosion of a gas stove. The fire was burning in a room occupied by a drummer the night previous. No insurance was carried on the building. However, the loss is trivial.

"I had tried everything for my baby until Dr. Lyle recommended Cascaeset. I can truthfully say it is the best medicine I ever used for my baby. My little baby was a mere skeleton from stomach trouble—so bad that she did not notice anything, but is now entirely well, and we can almost see her grow.—Nannie L. Taylor, Bedford, Va." Cascaeset is sold by all druggists.

THE POSTOFFICE IN PRIVATE HANDS.

W. D. Boyce, a business man of Chicago, has, on behalf of a syndicate, a proposition to take over the postoffice department and operate the same as "a private affair for public benefit." Boyce agrees to pay the government rental for the postoffice buildings and to pay to the government, also, all of the profits above seven per cent. on the investment. He guarantees that he will reduce the present rate of postage by one-half; that he will extend the rural free delivery so that every farmer in the land will have the advantages of that service; and that he will add a postal express department to that package will be distributed by the rural carriers outside the mail.

If the Republican leaders' hostility toward public utilities is well grounded, why not give serious consideration to this Chicago proposition? This hostility is not, however, well grounded. Men know that with all of its present day shortcomings the postal department, in the hands of the government, gives to public affairs better service than it does in private hands. When any one proposes to place under private control a public department so near and dear to the people as the postoffice, there is no difficulty in convincing even thoughtful Republicans that the suggestion is "undeniably and intolerable." As this is true with respect to a monopoly in the postoffice, so it is true with respect to a monopoly in any of the necessities of life. "A private monopoly is intolerable and intolerable."—The Commonwealth.

Beautiful Gowns and Jewels

Worn at Reception.

The gowns worn at the White House reception were exceptionally fine, white ones predominating. Mrs. Roosevelt wore a pale pink brocaded satin with long train and much lace on the bodice; Mrs. Root was in white satin and point lace; Mrs. Shaw, white lace and embroidered chiffon; Mrs. Taft, net over pink silk; Mrs. Bonaparte, white brocaded satin, with gold and black embroidery, diamond necklaces and earrings and white plumes in her hair; Mrs. Metcalf, pompadour silk; Mrs. Straus, white satin empire gown, with velvet and with diamond ornaments; Mrs. Loeb, wife of the secretary to the President, light green satin, embroidered with tiny rosebuds; Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, a particularly beautiful gown of dark green velvet made princess, with very long train, long old-fashioned earrings of pearls and diamonds, a superb necklace, and with her wedding gift from Cuba and a diamond necklace in addition; Miss Gladys Roosevelt, white satin and chiffon; Mrs. Whitehead Reid, wife of the American Ambassador to England, white satin with sparkling diamonds, a superb necklace and a superb diamond—New York Sun.

COULD NOT REST NIGHT OR DAY

With Irritating Skin Humor—Whole Body Affected—Scalp Itched All the Time and Hair Began to Fall Out—Wonderful Result From

APPLICATION OF CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I am never without Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment since I tried them last summer. About the latter part of July my whole body began to itch. I did not take much notice of it at first, but it began to get worse all the time, and then I began to get uneasy and tried all kinds of baths and other remedies that were recommended for skin humors; but I became worse all the time. My hair began to fall out and my scalp itched all the time. Especially at night, just as soon as I would get in bed and get warm, my whole body would begin to itch and my finger nails would keep it irritated, and it was not long before I could not rest night or day. A friend asked me to try the Cuticura Remedies, and I did, and the first application helped me wonderfully. For about four weeks I would take a hot bath every night and then apply the Cuticura Ointment to my whole body; and I kept getting better, and by the time I used four boxes of Cuticura I was entirely cured, and my hair stopped falling out, but I continue to use the Cuticura on my scalp. It keeps all dandruff out and scalp is always clean. I always use Cuticura Ointment on my face after shaving, and have found nothing to equal it. I will never be without it." D. E. Blankenship.

RECOMMENDED TO ALL MOTHERS

"I have used Cuticura Ointment for chafing of infants, and as they grew older all skin diseases were given treatment with that and the Cuticura Soap. I never found it necessary to call a doctor, as these Remedies are a sure cure. I used as directed. I am glad to recommend them to all mothers." Sincerely yours, Mrs. F. A. Kennard.

June 21, 1905. St. Paul Park, Minn.

PAUL COMPTON, Assistant Cashier.

The Bank of Hardinsburg and Trust Company in presenting this statement again call your attention to its strong position, to its ever increasing strength in resources, surplus and profits, and to its very conservative manner of conducting business. These are the characteristics which have brought such large patronage to this bank, and it is on these it depends for future success.
